CHAPTER – III

RESTRICTIONS ON COMMUNICATION AND TRADING BY INSIDERS

- 4.0 Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information
- i. No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to securities of ONGC or securities proposed to be listed by ONGC, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
 - ii. No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to securities of ONGC or securities proposed to be listed by ONGC, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
 - iii. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Code, unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in terms of the provisions of Regulation 3(3) and 3(4) of the “Regulations”

5.0 Trading by insiders including promoters, non-individual insiders when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information shall be governed by Regulation 4 of the “Regulations”.

6.0 Trading Plans.

6.1 An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

6.2 Such trading plan shall:–

- i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- ii. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by ONGC and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- iii. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- iv. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- v. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- vi. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

6.3 The compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these Code and “Regulations” and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

6.4 The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the compliance officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information so as to avoid a violation of this Code or “Regulations”.

- 6.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities of ONGC are listed.

CHAPTER – IV

EXPLANATION:

1. The trading window shall be opened 48 hours after the “Unpublished price sensitive information”, for which the trading window is closed, becomes generally available.
2. The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the company.
3. The notice of closure and opening of trading window shall be intimated to the Stock Exchanges and uploaded on the intranet and website of ONGC.

10.2 The remaining days of a year other than the days mentioned under 10.1 above shall be called “Valid Trading Window”. All Directors, Officers and designated persons of ONGC (including those persons covered under explanation 2 to 10.1) shall conduct their dealings in the securities of the Corporation only in “Valid Trading Window” as mentioned above.

10.3 The restrictions mentioned in clause 10.1 above shall not be applicable in respect of exercise of an option under Employees Stock Option Scheme (ESOS) or ESOPs. However, shares allotted on exercise of ESOS/ESOPs, shall not be sold during the period mentioned under clause 10.1, when “Trading Window” shall remain closed.

11. Pre-clearance of Trades

- 11.1 All Directors, Officers, designated persons (including those persons covered under explanation 2 to 10.1), who intend to deal in the securities of ONGC either in their own name or in the name of their dependents (above the minimum threshold limit mentioned under clause 11.4) shall obtain pre-clearance of the transaction as per the pre-dealing procedure as described hereunder. Application for pre-clearance shall be made only during valid trading period. Application submitted during closure of trading window shall be invalid.
- 11.2 Directors, Officers, designated persons (including those persons covered under explanation 2 to 10.1) shall make pre-clearance application to the Compliance Officer in the format given in Appendix-II. The application shall indicate the estimated number of securities that the Director/ Officer/designated employee (including those persons covered under explanation 2 to 10.1) intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to securities in such depository mode and such other details, as may be required by the Compliance Officer from time to time in this behalf.
- 11.3 An undertaking shall be executed in favour of ONGC by such Director /Officer / designated persons (including those persons covered under explanation 2 to 10.1). A combined proforma application cum undertaking is annexed to this code as Appendix-II.
- 11.4 The pre-clearance shall not be necessary if the number of shares to be traded is less than 1000 shares in a single transaction or less than 3000 shares in a week.
- 11.5 Immediately on receipt of the pre-clearance application, the date and time of the receipt of the same shall be recorded thereon. The Compliance Officer shall process the pre-clearance applications and if the pre-clearance application is in accordance and in compliance with the provisions of this Code, the Compliance Officer shall endeavor to communicate the pre-clearance immediately but not later than 48 hours from the time of receiving the application. In the absence of the Compliance Officer, the officer authorized by the Compliance Officer shall give the pre-clearance.
- 11.6 All Directors, Officers, designated persons and their dependents (including those persons covered under explanation 2 to 10.1) shall execute their order in respect of securities of ONGC within seven trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given. If the order is not executed within seven trading days after the approval, the Directors, Officers designated persons and their dependents (including those persons covered under explanation 2 to 10.1) shall obtain fresh pre-clearance.
- 11.7 All directors/Officers/designated persons (including those persons covered under explanation 2 to 10.1) who buy or sell any number of shares of the company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All directors/officers/designated persons (including those persons covered under explanation 2 to 10.1) shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the company at any time. In the case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above mentioned entities shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.
- 11.8 In case the sale of securities is necessitated by personal emergency, the holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing the reasons in this regard provided that such relaxation does not violate the “Regulations”. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.

- 11.9 No Director, Officer, designated persons and their dependents (including those persons covered under explanation 2 to 10.1) shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed.

12. Reporting Requirements for transactions in securities

- 12.1 All Directors, Officers and designated persons of ONGC shall be required to forward following details of their transactions in securities of ONGC including the transaction in the name(s) of dependent family members to the Compliance Officer:
