

Gas trading exchange by October

The government plans to launch a natural gas trading exchange by October. PNGRB has sought bids to hire a consultant to help develop a regulatory framework for operationalising the gas exchange. Currently, the government fixes the price of the bulk of domestically produced natural gas. The rate has been arrived at using price prevalent in the US, Canada, UK, and Russia.

PHOTO COURTESY OF ONGC