Subject: Deduction of Tax at Source in FY 2022-23 on Final Dividend payable for FY 2021-22

Dear Shareholder(s),

We are pleased to inform you that, the Board of Directors of Oil and Natural Gas Corporation Limited has, at the meeting held on 28th May 2022, recommended a Final dividend of Rs.3.25/- per equity share of Rs.5/- each, i.e., 65%, which will be paid based on your shareholding as on the record date 19th August, 2022, fixed for this purpose and subject to approval at Annual General Meeting to be held on 29th August, 2022.

As you are aware, dividend payable to a shareholder is taxable in his hands and is subject to Deduction of Tax at Source (TDS) as per the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961 ('Act'). Statutory provisions in this regard and the documents/information desired from the shareholders have been brought out as under-

A. Deductibility of TDS on Dividend

In accordance with the provisions of the Act, dividend declared and paid by a company is taxable in the hands of the shareholders and accordingly, the company is required to deduct TDS thereon at the rates prescribed by the Act.

No TDS shall, however, be deductible on dividend payable to a resident individual shareholder, if the amount of such dividend, or, as the case may be, the aggregate of the amounts of such dividend, paid during the relevant financial year (i.e., FY 2022-23) does not exceed Rs.5,000. TDS is also not required to be deducted on dividend payable to-

- i. the Life Insurance Corporation of India established under the Life Insurance Corporation Act, 1956, in respect of any shares owned by it or in which it has full beneficial interest;
- ii. the General Insurance Corporation of India (Corporation) or to any of the four companies, formed by virtue of the schemes framed under sub-section (1) of Section 16 of the General Insurance Business (Nationalization) Act, 1972, in respect of any shares owned by the Corporation or such company or in which the Corporation or such company has full beneficial interest;
- iii. any other insurer in respect of any shares owned by it or in which it has full beneficial interest;
- iv. the Government;
- v. the Reserve Bank of India;
- vi. a Corporation established by or under a Central Act which is under any law for the time being in force exempt from income tax on its income; or
- vii. a mutual fund specified u/s. 10(23D) of the Act.

B1. Applicable rates of TDS on Dividend

In the cases of resident shareholders, the applicable TDS rate on dividend as prescribed by the Act is 10%. However, if the shareholder does not furnish its Permanent Account Number (PAN), TDS would be deductible at the rate of 20% (being higher than 10%) as per the provisions of section 206AA of the Act.

Hence, the shareholders are advised to update their PAN with the Depository Participant (if shares are held in DEMAT form), and with the Registrar and Share Transfer Agent of the Company (if shares are held in physical form).

In the cases of non-resident shareholders including Foreign Institutional Investors ('FIIs') and Foreign Portfolio Investors ("FPIs"), TDS on dividend would be applicable at the rate of 20% (plus applicable surcharge and health and education cess).

B2. Applicable TDS rates in the cases of non-filers of Return of Income

As per the provisions of Section 206AB of the Act, if any TDS is deductible from a “specified person”, then, TDS would be deducted at higher of the following rates-

- (a) twice the rate specified in the relevant provision of the Act;
- (b) twice the rate or rates in force;
- (c) 5%.

For the above purpose, “specified person” means a person, being a resident or a non-resident having a Permanent Establishment (PE) in India,-

- i. who has not furnished the return of income for the assessment year relevant to the previous year immediately preceding the financial year in which tax is required to be deducted. For this purpose, the assessment year would be reckoned to be the one for which time limit for filing Return of Income under sub-section (1) of Section 139 has expired; and
- ii. the aggregate of TDS/ TCS deducted/ collected in the case of such person is Rs.50,000 or more in the above referred previous year.

Accordingly, if, at the time of deducting TDS, the status of a resident shareholder or a non-resident shareholder (having a PE in India), as shown by the system of the Income-tax Department, is a “specified person”, TDS would be deductible at twice the normally applicable rate or 5%, whichever is higher.

Further, if owing to non-availability of PAN of a shareholder who is a “specified person” under section 206AB of the Act, the provisions of section 206AA are also applicable, TDS would be deductible at the rate applicable under section 206AA or under section 206AB of the Act, whichever is higher.

In the cases of resident shareholders, if PAN of a shareholder is not updated, it shall be assumed that the shareholder is a “specified person” for the purpose of section 206AB of the Act and TDS would be regulated accordingly.

It may be noted that, the provisions of Section 206AB shall not be applicable in cases of non-resident shareholders not having a PE in India. For this purpose, the expression PE (i.e. permanent establishment) includes a fixed place of business through which the business of the non-resident is wholly or partly carried on.

Thus, if a non-resident shareholder, who is otherwise liable for higher TDS under Section 206AB, submits a duly signed and verified declaration confirming that he/she does not have a PE in India, the provisions of Section 206AB would not come into play and TDS would be deductible at the normally applicable rate. In absence of such a declaration, TDS would be regulated as per the provisions of section 206AB of the Act.

C. Transferring credit to the beneficial owner

In cases where the shareholder is merely a custodian of the shares and, accordingly, not the beneficial owner of the dividend payable in respect thereof, then, in order to transfer the credit of TDS to the beneficial owner of dividend income, the shareholder may provide a declaration prescribed by Rule 37BA of the Income-tax Rules, 1962. The aforesaid declaration shall contain-

- (i) name, address, PAN and residential status of the person to whom credit is to be given;
- (ii) payment in relation to which credit is to be given; and
- (iii) The reason for giving credit to such person.

The above declaration must be provided on or before 22nd August, 2022, with link available at Company's website in due course at the following path: Website of the Company (ongcindia.com) → Investors → Dividend Information → TDS on Dividend or on link <https://ongc.taxosmart.com/login.jsp> in order to enable the Company to determine and deduct appropriate TDS/ withholding tax. Please note that no application under Rule 37BA would be considered in absence of the aforesaid details.
